DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

EXAMINATION FOR ASSAYERS FOR LICENCE TO PRACTISE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN ACCORDANCE with section 12 of the Bureau of Mines Act, examinations for efficiency in the practice of assaying will be held at Victoria, B. C., on the 29th day of April, 1912, and on such following days as may be found necessary.

Examinations will cover the following subjects, and candidates must be prepared to be examined in all of these subjects:—

(a.) A knowledge of the principles of inorganic chemistry.

(b.) SAMPLING:

Sampling of ores or furnace products and the reduction and preparation of sample for assay, including also the melting of gold dust and sampling of bar for assay.

(c.) QUALITATIVE DETERMINATION:

The qualitative determination of the common elements in ores and furnace products.

(d.) QUANTITATIVE DETERMINATION—ASSAYING:

Bullion—Gold bullion, for gold and silver;

Copper " for copper, gold and silver;

Lead-copper bullion, for lead, copper, gold and silver.

Coal:

Determination of moisture, volatile combustible matter, fixed carbon, ash and sulphur.

Ores and furnace products:

Nickel, by electrolytic method.

Iron, lead, lime, zinc, sulphur and silica, by any approved wet methods.

The mineralogical determination of a number of simple mineral substances.

ENTRANCE FOR EXAMINATION.

Entrance for any examination must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners, at least ten days before the date set for beginning of examination, and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ($15).

CERTIFICATE.

A certificate of efficiency in assaying will, upon payment of the prescribed fee ($15), be issued to each successful candidate, which certificate shall be considered as a licence to practise assaying in British Columbia; and notice is hereby given that only those holding such certificate of proficiency or licence will be allowed to act as assayers in this Province, under penalty, as provided by the Act.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.

In accordance with subsection (2) of section 12 of the Act, graduates of certain Schools of Mines and Colleges may be exempt from examinations, and may, upon satisfying the examiners, as provided in the Act, receive such certificate of competency or licence, upon payment of the fee therefor ($15).

The examination will consist chiefly of the practical assaying of samples, and while the Department of Mines will provide all the apparatus and chemicals usually necessary, it will not undertake to provide any special or unusual appliances or chemicals which might be called for, and if a candidate should require such he will have to provide them at his own expense.

Candidates must provide themselves with such platinum ware and sets of weights as they may require, as these will not be furnished at the examination.

The Department of Mines will make no charge for the use of chemicals or apparatus, but a candidate will be charged for all breakages or unnecessary loss caused by him.

Any additional information desired may be obtained from Herbert Carmichael, Secretary, Board of Examiners, Victoria.

CONSTABLE'S QUARTERS, YALE.

SEALED TENDERS, superscribed "Tender for Constable's Quarters, Yale," will be received by the Honourable the Minister of Public Works up to 12 o'clock noon, of Wednesday, the 17th day of April, 1912, for the erection and completion of a four-roomed timber-framed building for Constable's Quarters at Yale, in the Yale Electoral District, B.C.

Plans, specifications, contract, and forms of tender may be seen on and after the 27th day of March, 1912, at the offices of the Constable in charge, Yale, B.C., the Government Agents, Ashcroft and Nicola, and the Department of Public Works, Parliament Buildings, Victoria.

Each proposal must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque or certificate of deposit on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for the sum of $250, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering decline to enter into contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to complete the work contracted for. The cheques or certificates of deposit of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied, signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelopes furnished.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,— shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches.

There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petitions signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

THORNTON FELL,

no3 Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

[413.]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Friday, the 23rd day of February, 1912.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

THE Minister of the Interior states, under date the 16th February, 1912,—with reference to the Order in Council of the 19th December, 1911, authorizing the sale of 3.4 acres of land for station grounds at Mowich, in the Larch Hills Forest Reserve, to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company,—that the price to be charged for the lands should have been mentioned in the recommendation for the sale of the land as $10 per acre instead of $3.00 per acre.

The Minister therefore recommends that the price of the land as given in the above-mentioned Order in Council be changed to $10.00 per acre.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,

mh14 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[275.]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Monday, the 12th day of February, 1912.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

THE Minister of the Interior, under date 11th January, 1912, submits, with reference to an Order in Council, dated 18th April, 1907, authorizing the sale, on conditions of reclamation by irrigation of certain lands in Township 21, Ranges 22 and 23, West of the 6th Meridian, to Dr. M. S. Wade, of Kamloops, B.C., the interest in which land was assigned on 16th April, 1908, to the Barnes Estates, Limited, of Wallachin, B.C., and also to an Order in Council, dated 29th October, 1910, authorizing the sale on conditions of reclamation by irrigation of certain additional parcels of land in Township 21, Ranges 22 and 23, West of the 6th Meridian, to the Barnes Estates, Limited, that the conditions of the said Orders in Council, dated 18th April, 1907, and 29th October, 1910, above referred to, have been complied with in every particular and that letters patent have been issued to the Barnes Estates, Limited, for the lands set out in Schedule "A" and "B" accompanying the said Orders in Council.

The Minister states that the Barnes Estates, Limited, have applied to the Department of the Interior for the following additional parcels of land:—

	acres.
L.S. 3 and 4, Sec. 18, Tp. 21, R. 22, W. 6 M.	80
L.S. 7 " 8, " 8, " " " " "	80
Total .....	160

That the application has been reported upon by an engineer of the Department of the Interior, after inspection on the ground, who states that the parcels applied for are crossed by the main ditch and flume of the irrigation system of the Barnes Estates, Limited; that a small area only of each parcel can be served from the Company's irrigation ditch, the remaining area being steep side-hill required for the protection of the company's main ditch and flume.

The Minister therefore recommends that, in view of the excellent bona fide development work done to date by this Company and in view of the favourable report of the engineer of the Department of the Interior, he be authorized to sell the Barnes Estates, Limited, the above-described land at One Dollar ($1.00) per acre.

The Committee submit the same for approval.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,

mh14 Clerk of the Privy Council.

(n.) To borrow and raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(o.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue at par or at a premium or discount debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and collaterally or further to secure any securities of the Company by a trust deed or other assurance:

(p.) To issue and deposit any securities which the Company has power to issue by way of mortgage, to secure any sum less than the nominal amount of such securities, and also by way of security for the performance of any contracts or obligations of the Company:

(q.) To receive money on deposit or loan upon such terms as the Company may approve, and to guarantee the debts and contracts of customers and others:

(r.) To make advances to customers and others, with or without security, and upon such terms as the Company may approve, and generally to act as bankers for customers and others:

(s.) To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities, and bonuses to employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependants of such persons, and to establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of any schools and any educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institution, or trade societies, whether such societies be solely connected with the trade carried on by the Company or its predecessors in business or not, and any club or other establishment calculated to advance the interests of the Company or of the persons employed by the Company or its predecessors in business:

(l.) To make, accept, endorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(m.) To issue any shares of the Company at par or at a premium, or as fully or in part paid up, and to invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To pay for any property or rights acquired by the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Company may determine:

(o.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place any of the shares or debenture capital or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(p.) To accept payment for any property or rights sold or otherwise disposed of or dealt with by the Company, either in cash, by instalments or otherwise, or in shares of any company or corporation, with or without deferred or preferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of a mortgage or by debentures or mortgage debentures or debenture stock of any company or corporation, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Company may determine:

(q.) To enter into partnership or any joint-purse arrangement or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any company, firm, or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business within the objects of this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of any such company:

(r.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligation of any such company:

(s.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and transactions of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, turn to account, exchange, let on rent, royalty, share of profits, or otherwise, grant licences, easements, and other rights of and over, and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the undertaking and all or any of the property for the time being of the Company:

(u.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and obtain provisional or other protection and licences in respect of any inventions or alleged inventions, patents, trade marks or names, designs, copy-rights, schemes, ideas, secret or other processes, and the like, whether in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, which may appear likely to be advantageous or useful to the Company; and to test, develop, prolong, renew, exercise, use, vend, grant exclusive or other licences in respect of or otherwise deal with all or any of the same:

(jj.) To obtain from any Government or State, or from any potentate, local or other authority, any monopolies, concessions, charters, contracts, grants, privileges, and rights, the acquisition or possession of which may appear likely to further the objects of or benefit the Company, and to exercise, comply with, work, carry into effect, and turn to account any grants, contracts, or rights so obtained:

(kk.) To promote or assist in the promotion of any company or companies for or with any purposes or objects, and to effect or assist in effecting incorporation of such company or companies under the "Companies Acts," special Acts of Parliament, Royal charter, or otherwise:

(ll.) To invest any of the moneys of the Company in or upon such investments or securities as may from time to time be deemed expedient, and to lend or advance moneys to, guarantee the contracts or engagements of, become surety for, and financially assist any person, firm, company, or corporation:

(mm.) To raise or borrow moneys, and to secure or guarantee the payment or repayment of any moneys raised, borrowed, or owing by the Company, and the performance or discharge of any of its obligations or liabilities by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (redeemable or irredeemable), bonds, mortgages, or other securities based or charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking and assets of the Company (including after-acquired property or rights and uncalled or unissued capital), or in such other manner as may be determined upon:

(nn.) To accept and receive moneys on deposit from such persons, at such times, and for such periods (fixed or otherwise) as may be deemed expedient, and to pay interest thereon at such rates as the Company may think fit:

(oo.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, purchase, negotiate, discount, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, letters of credit, coupons, circular notes, bills of lading, dock warrants, delivery orders, rights or things in action, and other negotiable or mercantile instruments or securities; but nothing herein contained shall be deemed as authorizing the carrying-on of a banking company:

(pp.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any share or interest in or the whole or any part of the business, goodwill, and assets of any person, firm, or company, and to undertake all or any of the liabilities or obligations of such person, firm, or company, and to carry on, conduct, and liquidate any business so acquired; and to make and carry into effect any contracts or agreements with any such person, firm, or company as aforesaid with respect to amalgamation, joint working, co-operation, division of profits, mutual assistance, or otherwise, and to accept, by way of consideration for any such contract or arrangement, any shares, debentures, or securities of any company:

(qq.) To apply or subscribe for, accept, hold, underwrite, deal in, and place or guarantee the placing of any shares, scrip, stock, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or securities of any company or corporation:

(rr.) To apply for, promote, and obtain any provisional orders, Acts of Parliament, Board of Trade orders, charters, and other powers or authorities for enabling the Company to extend, modify, or carry out any of its objects or powers, or for any other purpose whatsoever:

(ss.) To oppose any Bills and any Parliamentary or other application which would or might, if passed or granted, adversely affect the Company:

(tt.) To effect assurances against risk of loss to the Company by fire, storm, sea, war, reprisal, accident, or otherwise howsoever:

(uu.) To pay for any services rendered to and any property or rights acquired by the Company in such manner as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of shares or securities of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(vv.) To maintain, repair, build upon, alter, improve, extend, manage, develop, sell, lease, exchange, let on hire, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of the property and assets at any time acquired, possessed, or controlled by the Company:

(ww.) To sell, transfer, or dispose of the whole or any part of the business or undertaking of the Company to any other company (whether promoted by this Company or not), or to any person, firm, or corporation, and to accept, by way of consideration for any such sale, transfer, or disposal, any shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or securities of any other company:

(xx.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any shares, debentures, securities, or property belonging to the Company:

(yy.) To pay the whole or any part of the costs, charges, fees, and expenses connected with the formation and incorporation of the Company and with obtaining subscriptions for its shares and securities:

(zz.) To give gratuities or pensions or grant pecuniary or other aid to any member of the Company or any persons who are, or have at any time been, employed by the Company, or to the wives, children, or relatives of such persons, and to found, support, subscribe or make donation to any clubs, sick-funds, trusts, hospitals, infirmaries, dispensaries, and institutions which may appear likely to be of any benefit or convenience to the Company or to any of the persons above mentioned:

(aaa.) To subscribe or make donations to or otherwise assist any public, charitable, benevolent, or useful institution, exhibition, or object:

(bbb.) To effect incorporation or recognition of the Company in the United Kingdom or any colony, dependency, foreign country, or place:

(ccc.) To do all such other acts and things as may seem incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(ddd.) To transact, manage, and carry on any trade, business, or operation within the scope of the Company's objects in any colony, dependency, foreign country, or place, as well as in the United Kingdom, and at any time or times, and as, by, or through principals, agents, brokers, trustees, contractors, sub-contractors, or otherwise, and either on sole or joint account:

(eee.) Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province of Alberta does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank-notes; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable subject to the conditions of the laws in force in Alberta and regulations made thereunder in respect to the matters therein referred to, and especially with respect to the construction and operation of railway, telegraph, and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special law and regulations may now be or may hereafter be put in force.

(l.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised, or owing by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets (whether present or future), including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may undertake:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To apply for, promote, and obtain any Act of Parliament, provisional order, or licence of the Board of Trade or other authority, for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(o.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), or any corporations, companies, or persons, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, corporation, company, or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To subscribe for, take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or other interest in or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(q.) To act as agents or brokers and as trustees for any person, firm, or company, and to undertake and perform sub-contracts, and also to act in any of the businesses of the Company through or by means of agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or others:

(r.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(s.) To contract with any person, firm, or company to pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company, or to pay the same, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling, or guaranteeing the subscription of any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of this Company:

(t.) To support and subscribe to any charitable or public object, and any institution, society, or club which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees, or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions, gratuities, or charitable aid to any person or persons who may have served the Company, or to the wives, children, or other relatives of such persons; to make payments towards insurance; and to form and contribute to provident and benefit funds for the benefit of any persons employed by the Company:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any colony or dependency and in any foreign country or place:

(v.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and undertaking any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit this Company, or to enhance the value of any property or business of this Company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire all or any part of the shares or securities of any such company as aforesaid:

(w.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(x.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company, or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(y.) To do all such other things as may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh14

(g.) To act as agent, factor, trustee, administrator, receiver, assignee, or executor for any corporation, company, or individual on such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed on in collecting, acquiring, holding, managing, using, dealing in and disposing of, on account of such corporation, company, or individual, any description of lands or movable property, or any right to or interest therein, or in doing all or any of the matters and things mentioned in this article:

(h.) To issue on behalf of any other company, partnership, or person, or of any Government, State, county, city, town, district, or other authority, all or any of their shares, stocks, scrip, bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, or other securities, with or without any guarantee or collateral obligation by this Company :

(i.) To apply for and obtain by grant, purchase, lease, or otherwise any concessions of any right, property, or privilege by any Government, State, county, city, town, district, or other authority, and to perform and fulfil the terms thereof; and to appear and oppose such concession, right, property, or privilege being conferred on others :

(j.) To procure the Company or any other company to be incorporated or registered in any State, colony, dependency, territory, or province, or to do whatever else is necessary or expedient in order to comply with or defer to the laws and customs of such State, colony, dependency, territory, or province; to appoint a trustee to hold any lands or movable property on behalf of the Company in the United Kingdom or in any State, colony, dependency, territory, or province; and to establish local boards or committees in the United Kingdom or abroad, with such powers, under such regulations, for such period, and at such remuneration as the Company may deem fit :

(k.) To establish branches and appoint agents to assist in the conduct and extent of said business :

(l.) To sell, either by public roup or private bargain, all or any of the lands or movable property of the Company :

(m.) To sell, dispose of, or transfer the business, property, and undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in consideration of payment in cash by instalments or otherwise, or in shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any other company, or partly in each of such modes of payment, or for such other consideration as may be deemed proper; and to distribute the price, howsoever paid or satisfied among the members in satisfaction of their interests in the assets of the Company in specie or otherwise :

(n.) To buy or acquire the business, land, property, or undertaking of any other company or partnership carrying on business which the Company may legally carry on, and to pay for such business, property, or undertaking either in cash by instalments or otherwise, or in shares, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the directors may approve :

(o.) To promote or concur in promoting any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company :

(p.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits or interests with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which the Company may legally carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company :

(q.) To amalgamate with any other company established for objects similar to any of those for which the Company is established, and to acquire, hold, and dispose of the shares, stocks, or debentures of any such company, or to distribute amongst the members of this Company any shares, stocks, or debentures received by it from other companies under any amalgamation scheme :

(r.) To remunerate the servants of the Company and others out of or in proportion to the returns or profits of the Company or otherwise as the Company may think fit :

(s.) To use as working capital or in any other way the Company may deem right or suitable any sum which may be set aside as reserve fund, and to invest the same along with the other moneys in the hands of the Company and in the same classes of investments :

(t.) To enter into, carry on, prosecute and defend all arbitrations, suits, contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements, and schemes, and to do all other acts, matters, and things which shall at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the protection of the Company as holders of or interested in any securities or investments, or for obtaining payment of the moneys payable thereon or in respect thereof :

(u.) To subscribe to any charitable or philanthropic institution, or to any purpose likely to promote the interests of this Company or its officials or agents :

(v.) To remunerate any persons for services rendered in relation to the formation, promotion, registration, and establishment of the Company, or placing the share capital or the debentures thereon, and to pay all costs and charges preliminary and incidental thereto :

(w.) To do all such other acts or things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the foresaid objects. mh21

To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, mines, mining rights, timber limits and leases, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, patents, licences, shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, securities, coupons, bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, concessions, produce, policies, book debts and claims, and any estate or interest and any right connected with any real and personal property, and any claims against such property or against any persons or company, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking so acquired :

(c.) To sell, lease, exchange, traffic in, and otherwise deal with and turn to account any real and personal property and any estate or interest therein as may seem expedient :

(d.) To develop the resources of any property acquired, and, as regards lands in particular, by clearing, draining, road-making, farming, grazing, planting, improving, mining, prospecting, subdividing, preparing building-sites, and constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, and maintaining houses, buildings, factories, warehouses, and public and private works and conveniences of all kinds :

(e.) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate, manufacture, and prepare for market ore, metal, and mineral substances (which terms shall include for greater certainty, but the enumeration of which shall not restrict the generality of the foregoing description), coal, gas, oil, and stone of all kinds:

(f.) To act as agents for the investment, loan, payment, transmission, and collection of money, and for the purchase, sale, improvement, development, and management of property, including business concerns and undertakings, and generally to undertake all kinds of agency work:

(g.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments; to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds; to give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking; to undertake and execute any trusts; to receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise; and generally to transact any of the business of bankers, capitalists, and financiers: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the issue of notes intended to circulate as money contrary to the "Bank Act":

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaging in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise to take and acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or to carry on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, and for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, and generally to purchase and take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of this business:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, and pay off such securities:

(m.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country or place:

(p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainments of the Company's objects;

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in the above clauses shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph or clause hereof shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any paragraph or from the name of the Company.

3A. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province of Alberta does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank-notes; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of the laws in force in Alberta and regulations made thereunder in respect of the matters therein referred to, and especially with regard to the operation and construction of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special law and regulations may now be or may hereafter be put in force. mh21

S. Y. WOOTON.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed are:—

To carry on the business of insurance against loss or damage by fire, and against injury by fire to houses, merchandise, and all other property, subjects, and effects, real or personal, and of effecting insurance on lives and survivorships, purchase and sale of annuities and of reversions, granting endowments, receiving moneys for investment and accumulation, and in general carrying on all other business of a fire and life insurance company in any part of His Majesty's Dominions of Great Britain and Ireland and the colonies or elsewhere.

Copy of section 4 of the "Caledonian Insurance Company's Act, 1880," being chapter 68, 43 & 44 Vict. (Imperial).

4. In addition to the powers of investment possessed by the Company under the Act of 1846, and under the said Royal charter, and under the said contract of copartnership and articles of agreement, it shall be lawful for the directors, and they are hereby empowered, subject to any restriction that may be imposed by resolution of the Company, passed after due notice at any ordinary annual meeting, or at any extraordinary meeting to be held for the purpose and in force for the time being, from time to time (notwithstanding any law of mortmain) to lay out and invest the moneys and funds of the Company, in the name of the Company or of trustees to be appointed by the directors on behalf of the Company, in the purchase of, or in loans or advances upon the security of, any of the investments following, whether such investments are or are not included in the powers of investment above enumerated or already possessed by the Company, that is to say:—

(1.) Bonds, mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, guaranteed or preference stock or shares of any railway, canal, gas, water, dock, harbour, or navigation company, or company for effecting improvements in any town, city, or burgh incorporated under Act of Parliament, carrying on business in the United Kingdom or India, paying dividends on their ordinary share capital:

(2.) Bonds, mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any canal, gas, water, dock, harbour, or navigation trust, or of any municipal or local authority or body in the United Kingdom, India, or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom, and secured upon the rates or tolls to be levied by such trust, authority, or body:

(3.) Ordinary stock or shares of any railway or other company having a fixed rate of dividend or interest guaranteed by the British Government, the British Indian Government, the Secretary of State for India, or the Government of any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom:

(4.) The Government stocks, funds, bonds, debentures, debenture bonds, or other securities of India or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom:

(5.) Policies of any assurance company, association, or society:

(6.) Annuities in perpetuity, or for a life, or for years, granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, by any department of the State, or by any assurance or other public company, or by any municipal or local authority or body, and secured upon the rates or tolls to be levied by such authority or body:

(7.) Life interests, whether immediate, postponed, vested, or contingent, in lands in the United Kingdom, or in any of the securities which the Company is authorized to hold as investments:

(8.) Vested or contingent reversionary estates and interests in lands in the United Kingdom, or in any of the securities which the Company is authorized to hold as investments, with a sufficient policy of insurance against the happening of the contingency by which the reversion would be defeated:

And to lend and advance the moneys, funds, and property of the Company upon mortgage or security of the following investments, that is to say:—

(1.) Lands of any tenure, or any estate or interest therein, in Australia, New Zealand, or Canada:

(2.) Ordinary stock or fully paid-up shares of any railway, canal, gas, water, dock, harbour, navigation company, or company for effecting improvements in any town, city, or burgh, incorporated under Act of Parliament, carrying on business in the United Kingdom or India, paying dividends on their ordinary share capital:

(3.) On debenture or deposit to any company, whether in Great Britain or Ireland, the Empire of India or the British colonies, authorized to take money on debenture or deposit:

And the Company may purchase, acquire, and hold lands in the colonies and elsewhere for the purpose of offices and other conveniences for carrying on the business of the Company; and may also make, out of any of the funds for the time being in the hands of the Company, all such investments and deposits respectively in the names of trustees or otherwise as may be required by the laws, customs, or practice of any colony or dependency of Great Britain, or of any country, State, or place where the Company may be carrying on, or may desire to carry on, business, to entitle it to carry on business as aforesaid:

Any part of the capital or other funds so laid out and invested may be disposed of, called in, or otherwise converted into money, and the money arising therefrom may be again laid out and invested, as before provided, from time to time, as the directors think fit; and the directors may from time to time set apart and deposit such sums as they think proper in such banks or banking companies as they may appoint, in a current or deposit account or accounts, in the name of the Company, to be operated upon by the directors, or by the manager, or such other officer or officers, or in such other manner as the directors may appoint.

(4.) To manufacture, accumulate, buy, sell, and distribute electricity or gas for lighting, heating, manufacturing, or for any other purpose, and to dispose of the same to public or private users; to manufacture, buy, sell, lease, and operate any and all machinery for manufacturing, generating, storing, distributing, or supplying any and all types of electric current, as well as all manner of electrical supplies or mechanical appliances or attachments, and also to manufacture, buy, and sell machinery and machinists' supplies of every kind and character:

(5.) To erect, buy, sell, lease, or operate power plants and generating stations for any of the purposes aforesaid, and to buy and sell or deal in any and every kind of personal property or merchandise:

(6.) To buy, sell, rent, lease, erect, or construct pole-lines and string wires thereon; to run wires or cables, pipe-lines or conduits above or below the ground as the same may be required to be done, and as may be necessary for supplying and distributing gas or electric current; to run such wires, cables, pipe-lines, or conduits, or other means or methods of conveying, distributing, or supplying such gas or electric current over or under public or private property, and to use the streets, alleys, or other public ways therefor, and to use any means or methods now in vogue for supplying or distributing such current or gas, and any that may be hereafter discovered or adopted; to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of any by-product arising out of the manufacture of gas or electricity:

(7.) To buy, sell, lease, let, and operate coal-mines, mineral and mining rights, oil lands, and any and every other kind of real estate; to construct all necessary railroads and tramways in the operation of coal and oil properties, or as may be necessary, in the opinion of the trustees of the corporation, in connection with any other branch or part of the business of the Company:

(8.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, construct, equip, lease, maintain, and operate, by electricity or other power, street-railways or railways without the cities, and commonly known as inter-urban railways, for the transportation of passengers, mail, express, merchandise, or freight of any character, and to charge and collect a compensation for such service; to acquire by purchase or otherwise any franchises of public grants necessary to the carrying-out of the powers in this article enumerated, or which may be considered necessary by the trustees of the Company:

(9.) To construct and maintain plants or power-stations for the purpose of irrigating lands, whether they be the lands of this Company or of some other company, firm, or individual, and to make such contracts in connection with such business of irrigation as the trustees of the Company may deem convenient or necessary for the best interests of the Company:

(10.) To consolidate with, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, any other corporation of the State of Washington engaged or authorized to engage, in whole or in part, in the same business in which this corporation is authorized to engage; and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of, stocks, bonds, and indebtedness of any such other corporation:

(11.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, receive, accept, take, own, hold, possess, use, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise enjoy the stocks, bonds, coupons, promissory notes, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidences of debts or securities of any other corporation, and to be a stockholder in such other corporation, and vote or make such other disposition of such stock as an individual might or could do:

(12.) To buy, sell, lease, and manufacture steam-boats, power-boats, and all kinds of water-craft, and to maintain and operate necessary plants for such manufacture:

(13.) To take, hold, and acquire by purchase, exchange, or other lawful modes, to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, shares of the capital stock, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness created by other corporations, and, where the holder of such stock, to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as a natural person might or could do:

(14.) To establish and carry on agencies, offices, storage-tanks, and houses, and to sell articles and products manufactured by itself or other persons or corporations, in any or all States, Territories, and districts of the United States of America and in foreign countries:

(15.) To guarantee the payment of dividends or interest on any shares, stocks, debentures, or other securities issued by, or any other contract or obligation of, any corporation whenever proper or necessary for the business of this corporation in the judgment of its Board of Trustees:

(16.) To remunerate any person or persons or corporations for services rendered or to be rendered in pledging or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital stock or any bonds or debentures or other securities or obligations of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or in the conduct of its business:

(17.) To acquire, hold, use, sell, assign, lease, mortgage, or otherwise acquire and dispose of letters patent of the United States or any foreign country, patents, patent rights, licences, privileges, inventions, improvements, and processes, trade-marks and trade-names, or pending applications therefor, relating to or useful in connection with any business of this corporation or for any other purpose whatsoever:

(18.) To enter into contracts of every sort and kind with any private person, corporation, or Government whatever:

(19.) To do any or everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the corporation, either for itself or as holder of or interested in any property, and in general to carry on any business, whether mining, manufacturing, or otherwise. mh7

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1083 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Sombrio Gold Mining Company, Limited (Non-Personal Liability)," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one million dollars, divided into one million shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

The Company is specially limited under section 131 of the above Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fourteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) For the acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims, and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of mineral therefrom, including, under and by virtue of the provisions of section 131 of the Act passed by the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia in the session held in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King Edward VII., begun and holden at the City of Victoria on the 20th day of January, A.D. 1910, and ending on the 10th day of March, A.D. 1910, and chaptered 7, the powers, following, that is to say:—

(1.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold within the Province of British Columbia, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(2.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy and deal in the same or any of them:

(3.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(4.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(5.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(6.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(7.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(8.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transactions which a company specially limited under section 131 of the "Companies Act, 1910," is authorized to carry on:

(9.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under section 131 is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(10.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company:

(11.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(12.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(13.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects. ml21

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1080 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Newport Water Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To collect and conserve water, and to divert, convey, distribute, deliver, furnish, and supply the same for domestic purposes and for municipal purposes, and to supply water to the Township of Newport and the surrounding districts, being an unincorporated locality, for domestic purposes, and to carry on the business of a waterworks company in all its branches:

(b.) To acquire water, water-power, and water rights and privileges by record, licence, purchase, agreement, and otherwise in or about Newport and the surrounding districts and elsewhere, and to improve and use the said water-power, and render the same available for use, application, and distribution by any means whatsoever:

(c.) To avail itself and to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities in and by the "Water Act, 1909," or amendments thereto created, provided, or conferred:

(d.) Generally to purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into channel or channels:

(c.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate any canals, trails, roads, ways, tunnels, subways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, aqueducts, furnaces, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company:

(f.) To construct, operate, and maintain electric works, power-houses, generating plants, or any other form of developed power:

(g.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise steam, electric, pneumatic, hydraulic, or other power or force, and to use, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To sink wells and shafts, and to make, build, and construct, lay down, and maintain reservoirs, waterworks, cisterns, culverts, filter-beds, main and other pipes and appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for maintaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water or otherwise for the purposes of the Company:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to the invention which may seem capable of being used, for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly, or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(j.) Generally to acquire, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(k.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such security:

(n.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (either fully or partly paid up), debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects similar or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another Company or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(r.) To lend, advance, deposit, invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, and shares and other property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, but in no case by a purchase of the shares of the Company:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(t.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(u.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(m.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(v.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh21

(g.) To institute, enter into, carry on, assist, or participate in trading, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, mining, and other businesses, works, contracts, undertakings, and financial operations of all kinds, and to carry on business as exporters and importers:

(h.) To make gifts of land or money for any religious, educational, sanitary, or public purpose, and also to make grants of land without consideration for roads, railways, parks, pleasure-grounds, market-places, public squares, open spaces, or any purpose which it is considered will enhance the value of the remaining property of the Company:

(i.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(j.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(k.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(l.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses, or providing the whole or any part of the capital thereof, or by underwriting the subscription to all or any of the share or debenture capital of any such company, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(m.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(n.) To adopt such means of making known the property and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(o.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands and rights or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and in the case of shares either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for any such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or dealing, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(p.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(q.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(s.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(t.) To lend or advance money to such parties, whether individuals or corporate bodies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons and corporations having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or undertakings of any such person or corporations:

(u.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(v.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(w.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(x.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors, trustees, or agents for any other company or person, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(y.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(z.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(aa.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(19.) To acquire, hold, and deal in shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(20.) To acquire by purchase, lease, licence, exchange, location, or otherwise, and to hold, in fee-simple or otherwise, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to develop, sell, exchange, and deal in lands, leases, timber licences, pulp lands, timber lands, mills, mill-sites, mill privileges, concessions, and foreshore rights:

(21.) To enter into partnerships or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to acquire and hold shares of stock in, or securities of, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company; and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares, stock, or securities:

(22.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any Government or authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of or otherwise turn to account any such agreements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(23.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights:

(24.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(25.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada and in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(26.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other company:

(27.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money on any terms or conditions, and for these or other purposes to mortgage or charge the undertaking and all or any part of the property, assets, and rights of the Company, present or after acquired, including uncalled capital:

(28.) To allot the shares of the Company as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any other valuable consideration:

(29.) To invest, loan, or deal with such moneys of the Company as may not be immediately required, and to do so in any manner desired by the Company:

(30.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(31.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate, either by payment in cash or by the issue of fully paid-up shares in the capital stock of the Company, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(32.) To promote companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(33.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(34.) To acquire and take over the business or undertaking in British Columbia or elsewhere of any person, whether a member of the Company or not, firm, or corporation now or hereafter carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or capable of being carried on so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take over such business as a going concern, together with the goodwill thereof and all property, contracts, rights, and liabilities thereof, and continue the operations thereof, and to pay for the same at such price as may be agreed upon, either in cash or in shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the Company, as may be agreed upon; and to enter into, perform, and enforce such contract or contracts as may be necessary to carry same into effect:

(35.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem, calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(36.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(37.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. mh21

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase, sell, lease, mortgage, or otherwise acquire or deal with any real or personal property in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to pay for the same in money or shares in the Company, or partly in money or partly in shares, or to give any property existing or to be acquired of the Company in exchange for the same:

(b.) To take, receive, acquire, and hold all estates and property, real as well as personal, which are granted, transferred, acquired by, or conveyed to the Company in any manner whatsoever not contrary to law, at any time, by any association, society, person, or body corporate, or by any order, judgment, or decree of any Court in Canada or elsewhere:

(c.) To develop the resources of and turn to account the lands, buildings, and rights for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, planting, building, improving, farming, grazing, irrigating, logging, lumbering, and mining, and by promoting immigration, establishing towns, villages, and settlements:

(d.) To carry on the business of farmers, graziers, meat and fruit preservers, brewers, planters, loggers, manufacturers of lumber and all wood products, including wood-pulp and paper, miners, metallurgists, reducers of ores and extractors of metals of all kinds, whether precious or base, by any method whatsoever, quarry-owners, brick-makers, builders, contractors for the construction of works, both public and private, merchants, importers and exporters, printers, publishers, licensed victuallers, bankers, ship-builders, ship-owners, brokers, and any other business which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to develop the Company's property:

(e.) To construct, carry out, support, maintain, improve, manage, work, operate, control, and superintend tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamation, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic, and power-supply works, and hotels, exchanges, churches, parks, schools, museums, places of recreation, or other undertakings which may seem, directly or indirectly conducive to any of these objects; and to contribute to or otherwise take part in the construction, carrying-out, support, maintenance, improvement, management, working, operating, controlling, and superintending of the same:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, concessions, patents, brevets d'invention, franchises, licences, secret processes, or other privileges whatsoever, or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of works and conveniences undertaken or contemplated by the Company, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(g.) To apply for and obtain licences for the use of water for any purpose authorized by the "Water Act," and to exercise and enjoy all the powers and privileges granted to power companies by the said Act:

(h.) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(i.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Company constituted or carrying on business in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Government, Sovereign, Ruler, Commissioners, public body, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), whether at home or abroad:

(j.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(k.) To issue debenture stock, debentures, bonds, obligations, and securities of all kinds, and to frame, constitute, and secure the same, as may seem expedient, with full power to make the same transferable by delivery or by instrument of transfer or otherwise, and either perpetual or terminable, and either redeemable or otherwise, and to charge or secure the same by trust deed or otherwise, on the undertaking of the Company, or upon any specific property and rights, present and future, of the Company (including, if thought fit, uncalled capital), or otherwise howsoever:

(l.) To facilitate and encourage the creation, issue, or conversion of debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, shares, stocks, and securities, and to act as trustees in connection with any such securities, and to take part in the conversion of business concerns and undertakings into companies:

(m.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(n.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the condition, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(o.) To constitute any trust with a view to the issue of preferred and deferred or any other special stocks, securities based on or representing any shares, stocks, or other assets specifically appropriated for the purposes of any such trust, and to settle and regulate and, if thought fit, to undertake and execute any such trusts, and to issue, dispose of, or hold any such preferred, deferred, or other special stocks or securities:

(p.) To transact or carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money:

(q.) To give any guarantee in relation to the payment of any debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities:

(r.) Generally to carry on business as financiers, and to undertake and carry out all such operations and transactions (except the business of banking and the issuing of policies of assurance) as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(s.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(t.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(u.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(v.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(w.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(x.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the whole or any part of the property of the Company, present or afterwards acquired, or its uncalled capital; and draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(y.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(z.) To adopt means of making known the products and operations of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(aa.) To obtain any executive order or legislative enactment for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(bb.) To sell, improve, manage, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(cc.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(dd.) To do all such other things as are incidental or the Company may think conducive to the attainment of the above objects. mh21

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities in Parts VII. and IX. of the "Water Act, 1909," and all such further rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities as may be contained in any Act amending or repealing the same in whole or in part:

(b.) To develop, own, and hold records or licences of unrecorded water, and to purchase water records and water privileges, and to obtain licences to use water; and to construct, erect, maintain, and operate canals, ditches, pipes, aqueducts, raceways, flumes, weirs, wheels, feeders, laterals, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells, buildings, or other erections or works which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water and water-power, and to alter, renew, extend, improve, repair, and maintain any such works or any part thereof; and to conduct, carry, and transfer water to any persons or corporations for irrigation, manufacturing, industrial, mechanical, mining, milling, domestic, and stock-raising purposes, and also to build and construct storage reservoirs for the collection and storage of water for the purposes aforementioned, with full power and authority to make contracts and agreements for the sale of permanent water rights, and to convey such water for irrigation, domestic, and general power purposes:

(c.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain tramway, telegraph, and telephone systems and lines:

(d.) To use such water and water-power for domestic or general irrigation purposes on lands in the Province of British Columbia, and for mining, milling, manufacturing, industrial, and general power purposes, and for generating electricity for light, heat, power, the operation of motors, engines, and machinery of all kinds, or for any other purpose for which it can be used, either alone or in connection with any other power:

(e.) Generally to construct all works and to do all things necessary for obtaining, selling, delivering, distributing, and measuring water or water-power or electrical or other developed power or otherwise for the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To adopt such unit of measurement of water or water-power and to provide such means of measuring water or water-power for use and sale as may be most convenient:

(g.) To sell and permit the use of water or water-power for transmitting electricity or any other form of developed power, and for all or any of the purposes for which it may or can be used or beneficially applied, and to fix a tariff of rates and charges for such sale or use:

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, debentures, and bonds of any company having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire lands, buildings, or plant and any rights or privileges which the Company may deem necessary for the purposes of its business and undertaking:

(k.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for making any modifications of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may be deemed expedient:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To deal with and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital (if any), and to redeem or pay off any such security:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To sell, dispose of, assign, or transfer the undertaking and property of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any company having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To sell, manage, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(r.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh21

To buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, export, import, manufacture, and deal in lumber, shingles, laths, sashes, doors, and timber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in all kinds of finishings and articles in the manufacture of which timber and wood is used, and to carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors, and engage in the business of lumbering in all its branches:

(c.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey, and build steamers and steam-tugs, barges, and other vessels, or any interests or shares therein requisite for the purpose of the Company, and to let out to hire or charter the same:

(d.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve any land which, or any interest in which, may belong to the Company; and to deal with any farm or other products thereof, and also to lay out into townsites said lands or any parts thereof:

(e.) To construct dams and improve rivers, streams, and lakes, and to divert the whole or part of the water of such streams and rivers as the purpose of the Company may require:

(f.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and supply-stations for the purposes of the Company, and the supplying of goods to any of its employees or the occupiers of any of its lands, or any other persons, and for bartering and dealing in the products of mine and forest, and the carrying-on of the general business of traders and merchants:

(g.) To construct, carry out, and maintain, improve, manage, and work, control, and superintend any trails, roadways, tramways logging-railways (operated by steam, electricity, or other motive power), bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, wharves, electric works, drainage-works, irrigation-works, telegraphs, telephones, warehouses, wharves, booms, timber-slides, booming grounds, stores, buildings, ships, vessels, and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to or otherwise assist in the carrying-out, establishment, construction, maintenance, improvement, management, working, control, or superintendence of the same:

(h.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(p.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and any other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(q.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(r.) To obtain an Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(s.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person (whether he is a member of the Company or not) or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraphs, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British dominions or elsewhere.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the construction and architectural business of Allan B. Stroud Company in the Province of British Columbia, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the said business, and to pay for the said business in fully paid-up shares of the Company, and to enter into all necessary agreements to fully effect the said transfer:

(b.) To carry on a general architectural and construction business in all its branches:

(c.) To enter into, apply for, or otherwise acquire or undertake contracts for the drawing or making of architectural plans, architectural oversight, construction, erection, equipment, improvement, laying out, or developing, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, of public and private works, buildings, and conveniences of all kinds, which expression in this memorandum includes railways, tramways, roads, docks, harbours, piers, bridges, aqueducts, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigation, reclamation, improvements, sewerage, drainage, sanitary, water, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic, and power-supply works, dwelling-houses, business blocks, warehouses, hotels, markets, and public and private works and buildings, and any conveniences of public utility or for private use:

(d.) To apply for, undertake, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, or concessions for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, demonstration, or control of public works or conveniences and works of all other descriptions, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn the same to account:

(e.) To carry on the business of architects, draughtsmen, designers, engravers, machinists, pattern-makers, miners, metallurgists, builders and contractors, engineers, ship-owners, ship-builders, merchants, loggers, sawmill proprietors, wood and metal workers, importers and exporters, and to buy, sell, and deal in builders and contractors' material, stones, sand, lime, bricks, timber, iron and steel goods, hardware and other builders' requisites, and property of all kinds, and generally to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in merchandise of all kinds:

(f.) To manufacture, buy, sell, exchange, alter, improve, manipulate, prepare for market, and otherwise deal in all kinds of plant, machinery, apparatus, tools, utensils, substances, material, and things necessary and convenient for carrying on any of the above-specified business or proceedings, or usually dealt in by persons engaged in the like:

(g.) To build, purchase, operate, or hire steam-boats, or boats controlled by motive power of any description, sailing crafts or ships or boats of any kind, and to sell or rent for hire all or any of the same, and in any of such ships or boats to take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds, at such time and place and for such charge or reward as to the Company may seem fit:

(h.) To carry on the business of financial agents, estate agents, brokers, and dealers in property of all kinds, real and personal, on agency terms or otherwise, and to act as agents for fire, life, and accident insurance companies, and generally to carry on an agency and brokerage business in all its branches:

(i.) To carry on the business of a safe-deposit and investment company, and to borrow or raise money by the issue or sale of bonds, mortgages, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, whether perpetual or otherwise, and to apply the money so raised in such investments as may be deemed advisable:

(j.) To act as executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator, or assignee of any property, real or personal, and to act as bailee in any and all kinds of personal property, and to act as guardian of the persons and estates of infants and as attorney on behalf of any person:

(k.) To negotiate loans and to loan money, and to search titles of property and make abstracts of same, and to form, organize, and promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(l.) To act as agent or attorney for provincial, extra-provincial, and for foreign companies, and for owners of property, real or personal, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(m.) To acquire by location, purchase, lease, or otherwise, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, real estate, improved or unimproved, and personal property of every kind and nature, and to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(n.) To act as general valuers for all classes of property, and to act as house and estate agents and managers of buildings, estates, and to collect rents on such terms as may be agreed upon:

(o.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, Federal, or otherwise), and to obtain from such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(p.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company: and to enter into partnership or any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(q.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock, of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or for any other valuable consideration:

(r.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or in any way connected therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same, or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interest of the Company:

(s.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(t.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as it may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members:

(v.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may be from time to time determined:

(w.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(x.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(y.) To receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise, and to loan and advance money on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts entered into by such persons:

(z.) To borrow or raise money on such terms and conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay off all such securities or obligations:

(aa.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect the objects of the Company or any of them:

(bb.) To do all such things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) with reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company. mh21

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on the business of real-estate and insurance agents, mining and stock brokers, mortgage-brokers, accountants and financial agents, company promoters, and generally to buy, sell, or otherwise deal in real estate or any interest therein:

(b.) To act generally as trustees, and as such to accept, fulfil, and execute all such trusts of every description as may be committed, granted, transferred, or conveyed to them, on any trust whatsoever not contrary to law, by any association, society, person, or body corporate, or by any order, judgment, or decree of any Court in British Columbia or elsewhere, and to take and accept by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, or bequest and hold any real or personal estate, or any manner of trust created in accordance with law, and with regard to the same upon such terms of remuneration as may be agreed upon or as such Court may allow:

(c.) To act generally as agents, attorneys, factors, or trustees for any company, corporation, or individual on such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed upon for the transaction of business, the management of estates, the collection of accounts, rents, interests, dividends, mortgages, bonds, bills, notes, and other securities; to examine, state, liquidate, compromise, and adjust accounts, and on instruction or under power of attorney to attend and vote at meetings, and generally to act as a representative and proxy at such meetings, and to act as advisory agent with regard to all matters in which the said company, corporation, or individual may have or appear to have any interest whatsoever:

(d.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, coal, iron, gold, copper, or other mines of any nature whatsoever, and to acquire by location, purchase, exchange, or otherwise any gas, petroleum, or other metalliferous lands or clay-beds, and to sell, operate, develop, work, lease, exchange, or otherwise deal with the same as the Company may see fit:

(e.) To carry on business as miners, oil merchants, refiners, coalmasters, coke manufacturers, smelters, dressers, metal-workers, colliery proprietors, dealers in precious and other stones, gold and other metals of all kinds, timber merchants, store-keepers, farmers, stockmen, provision preservers and vendors, mechanical and electrical engineers, surveyors, mining engineers, manufacturers, builders, brickmakers, and contractors in all their branches, and generally to undertake and carry out any operations and transactions whatsoever, except issuing policies of insurance, which may be lawfully undertaken and carried on by capitalists and which the Company may think it expedient to undertake and carry out:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description and any estate or interest therein, and any right over and in connection with land, and to survey, subdivide, lease, exchange, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber such lands or any estate or interest therein, and to build, contract for, construct, or erect thereon, or on other lands, bridges, roads, ways, wharves, warehouses, stores, or other buildings, and to use, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same as the Company may see fit:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise any timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights, water rights and privileges, and to operate, develop, sell, exchange, or otherwise deal with the same as the Company may see fit:

(h.) To purchase, build, or otherwise acquire, operate, lease, hire, or dispose of ships, tugs, steamboats, barges, and other vessels, ferries, stage-lines, or other vehicles, and to carry on business as common carriers by land and water, and in general to acquire, hold, or dispose of any real and personal property of whatever description (including any rights and privileges), and to improve, develop, and turn to account the resources of any lands, buildings, and other property for the time being belonging to or controlled by the Company, and in such manner as the Company may think fit, and to erect and maintain suitable buildings and structures for all or any of the purposes of the Company:

(i.) To act generally as wholesale, retail, commission, and general merchants:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To lend money to such persons and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and upon such security, whether real or personal, as the directors may see fit, and in particular to customers or all persons having dealings with the Company, and whether such money is the proper money of the Company or trust funds, and to receive moneys on deposit; to pay interest thereon, and permit the same to be withdrawn by the owner, provided that the Company may require thirty (30) days' notice in writing of such owner to withdraw the same:

(l.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of their property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issuing of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lease upon the whole or any part of the Company's assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lease to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company or any person or corporation of any obligation or liability which may be undertaken:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the formation or promotion of this Company and the conduct of its business:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise:

(s.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(t.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(u.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh14

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1067 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Pacific Gypsum Mines, Limited (Non-Personal Liability)," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one million dollars, divided into one million shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims, and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of minerals therefrom; and are as follows:—

(a.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province of British Columbia, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(b.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(f.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in nowise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the Company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any Company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects. mh14

(f.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(h.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(i.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(m.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, engaging in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(o.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances on the security of any land or house or other property, or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise, with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(q.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh14

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business of J. Drummond & W. Wills as now carried on by them in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith; and with a view to such acquisition to adopt and make binding upon the Company, and to carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement referred to in the accompanying articles of association:

(b.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise and to hold such lands in the City of Victoria or elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia as the Company may require, and to build dwellings, apartment-houses, hotels, lodging-houses, stores, offices, docks, wharves, quays, or other buildings thereon, and generally to improve such lands:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and by constructing, re-constructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, goodwill, and assets of any person, firm, or company carrying on or proposing to carry on any of the businesses which this Company is authorized to carry on, and as part of the consideration of such acquisition to undertake all or any of the liabilities of such person, firm, or company:

(e.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in leasehold and freehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(f.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income:

(g.) To carry on the business of general builders and contractors, or any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's rights or property:

(h.) To buy, sell, or deal in stone, sand, lime, bricks, hardware, paints, oil, or other building requisites and material of all kind:

(i.) To undertake and carry on the business of real-estate agents, financial agents, insurance agents, and estate agents, and to establish, operate, and maintain stores and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(j.) To sell, pledge, or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(k.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purpose of the said Company, and to promote the objects and business of the Company:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company:

(m.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and such other persons, firms, or corporations and upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company upon such securities and in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(q.) To act as an agency or association for or on behalf of others who entrust it with money for loan or investment, and also to secure the repayment of the principal or the payment of the interest, or both, of any moneys entrusted with the Company for investment; and for the purpose of securing the Company against loss upon any guarantee or obligation or any advance made by the Company, to receive and dispose of any description of assets or security which is conveyed, pledged, mortgaged, or assigned to or warehoused with the Company in connection with such guarantee, obligation, advance, or investment:

(r.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company:

(s.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(t.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, buy, or otherwise acquire and hold buildings, factories, or any other rights or privileges, machinery, business, goodwill, plants, stock-in-trade, and to use steam, water, or electricity for motive or for any other purpose:

(u.) To purchase or by other means acquire and protect, prolong, and renew, whether within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, protections, and concessions which may appear likely to be advantageous or useful to the Company, and to use and turn to account and to manufacture under or grant licences or privileges in respect of the same, and to spend money in experimenting upon and testing and improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions, or rights upon which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(w.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other security of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(x.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(y.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of this Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, debentures, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh14

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on the business of electrical and mechanical engineers and contractors, and manufacturers of electrical and other machinery and equipment, machinists, builders, and merchants; and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let or hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, hardware, tools, wire, and all other articles of every kind used in connection with the installation of an electric plant and system, or telephone plant and system, and other mechanical works of any description:

(b.) To carry on the business of the installation and erection, operation, and maintenance, as contractors or principals or otherwise, of electric-light and telephone systems, including the construction of all works, mechanical or otherwise, in connection therewith, and the installation of such systems in the places of consumers or users; and for all such purposes to construct, lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity, and to light towns, cities, and places, both public and private:

(c.) To carry on the business of dealers, as principals or agents, in gasoline-engines, steam-engines, agricultural implements, mining, marining, dredging, cannery, and other machinery, automobiles, and to manufacture, repair, and operate the same:

(d.) To undertake and execute any contracts for works involved in the supply or use of any machinery to carry out any ancillary or other works comprised in such contracts:

(e.) To contract for the supply of electricity for light, heat, or motive power for any of the foregoing purposes, and to carry out all works necessary and incidental thereto:

(f.) To build, maintain, and operate tramways in the Province of British Columbia, and to exercise all the powers and privileges which an incorporated company may be entitled to exercise under the "Tramway Incorporation Act":

(g.) To apply for and obtain under the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendment or other Statute or law, to purchase or otherwise acquire, water records or water licences:

(h.) To purchase such lands as in the opinion of the Company may be necessary from time to time for any works to be erected by the Company, or for rights-of-way, or which for any reason the Company may consider desirable or necessary in connection with its operations, and to mortgage, lease, sell, or dispose of the same from time to time as the Company may think fit:

(i.) To utilize the said water for the purpose of developing electricity for light, heat, or power, or for compressing air, and using the same for all purposes; and for either of such purposes to construct and operate such works for storing, diverting, and using the said water and for generating such power, and distributing and using the same, as may be necessary or proper:

(j.) To carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the foregoing objects, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of any of the Company's property or rights for the time being or otherwise benefit the Company:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used, for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(l.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(o.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

D. WHITESIDE,

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on the business of hotel, restaurant, cafe, tavern, beer-house, refreshment-room, and lodging-house keepers, licensed victuallers, wholesale or retail, wine, beer, and spirit merchants, importers of aerated, mineral, and artificial waters and other drinks, purveyors, livery-stable keepers, tobacco and cigar merchants, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(b.) In particular, but without in any way limiting or restricting the generality of the objects set forth in the preceding or any subsequent clauses hereof, to acquire the lands and property comprised in the draft agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association; and with a view thereto to enter into the same agreement or any other agreement or agreements which may be substituted therefor, and to carry the same into effect, with or without modification:

(c.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(e.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(f.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(j.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(m.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(r.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, deal in, sell, lease, mortgage, and hypothecate, real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, mines, coal and oil lands, surface rights and rights-of-way, water records and privileges, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, and any estate or interest in real or personal property, and any claims against such property or against any persons or company:

(b.) To construct on any of the property of the Company, or on any property controlled by the Company, any office buildings, warehouses, stores, apartment-houses, or other buildings, and to maintain, alter, manage, sell, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the same:

(c.) To carry on and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents, brokers, and money-lenders; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent or factor for any person, firm, or corporation; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods, and chattels or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(d.) To convey properties owned by the Company to a trustee or trustees to be held for the benefit of the Company and of the purchasers of interests therein, subject to the terms of such trust deeds as the Company may devise:

(e.) Under trust deeds or other conveyances or arrangements, to divide the equitable ownership of real estate into units, and to dispose of the same to persons, firms, or corporations on such terms of payment and with such conditions, as to the division of the increase of value and the rents and profits of such real estate between this Company and the purchasers of such units, as may be set out in such trust deeds, conveyances, or arrangements:

(f.) To sell, assign, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(g.) To search titles to property and make abstracts of the same; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, negotiate, and deal in agreements for the sale and purchase of land or other property, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities.

(h.) To advance or lend any of the capital or other moneys of the Company for the time being (including moneys received on deposit and moneys held in trust by the Company) on the security of freeholds, leaseholds, mortgages, agreements for sale of land, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, stock-in-trade, steam or other vessels or shares or interests therein, chattels, and any other property, real or personal, upon such terms as may be agreed:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, accept, sign, endorse, discount, negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, or to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock or other securities:

(j.) To negotiate loans and to lend or advance money (including money received on deposit and money held in trust by the Company) on securities or assets of all kinds to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments; and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(k.) To issue redeemable and irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, trust deed, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument, or in such other manner as may be determined, and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(l.) To be appointed executor and to accept the executorship of estates, and to act as executor of the estates of deceased persons; to obtain probate of wills and re-sealing of probate issued outside of British Columbia; to carry out the provisions of wills; to apply for and obtain letters of administration for and to administer intestates' estates, and estates where the executors or executor named in the wills renounce or do not or for any cause are unable to act; to apply for administration of estates where the executor or executors named in wills renounce or do not or for any cause are unable to act; to apply for appointment, to be appointed by a Court, Judge, or otherwise, and to act as trustees or committee of lunatics, imbeciles, persons incapacitated by old age, and other persons who are under any disability or incapacity to act for themselves; to apply for appointment, to be appointed, and to act as guardians for infants; to be appointed to and to accept and to execute the office of official administrator under any Act for any one or more of the counties of or the whole of any or all the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada or other State or country; to act as agents for executors, administrators, trustees, guardians of infants, committee of lunatics, imbeciles, persons incapacitated by old age, or other incapacitated person, receivers, liquidators, or assignees; and to manage, administer, realize upon, and distribute any and all estates or assets of the same, and do everything pertaining thereto as fully and effectually as the owner or owners thereof might or could do; to act generally as trustee, and to undertake the duties of trustees by appointment of any Court having jurisdiction in the premises; to manage and carry on any business as trustees for any person or persons or corporation by any lawful appointment; to execute all trust deeds and other documents in connection with the carrying-out of any trust; to act as trustee for persons holding or entitled to hold debentures, bonds, or other securities; to act as liquidator or receiver or in other similar capacity in winding up the business of persons, firms, or corporations, or for purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation, and to act in promoting the amalgamation or working in co-operation of any such business or corporations; to receive assignments of estates upon any trust and execute such trusts, and to execute as trustee deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors; to realize upon and to distribute according to law the assets of any business received in trust or by assignment, or as liquidator or receiver to receive money and securities on any trust, or by direction of a Court or Judge, or for investment or on deposit, or on security of bonds, bills of sale, promissory notes, acknowledgments, or other documents or evidence of debt of the Company or otherwise, and with or without any security, and to allow such rate or rates of interest thereon as may be agreed upon from time to time; to invest and deal with any money and securities received as herein provided, and also the money and securities of the Company, in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To buy, take by grant, assignment, devise, bequest, or otherwise acquire title to and to sell and transfer, mortgage, and hypothecate any Provincial, railway, municipal, and other bonds or debentures of any kind whatsoever, and stock and shares in companies, banks, or building societies and other securities; to countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other obligations of any kind whatsoever; to invest and manage any sinking fund of any kind for any municipality or corporation on such terms as may be agreed upon; to guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(n.) To give any guarantee in relation to mortgages, loans, investments, and securities, whether made or effected or acquired through the Company's agency or otherwise, and generally to guarantee or become sureties for the performance of any contracts and obligations:

(o.) To act as representative, attorney in fact, or proxy for any person, firm, or corporation for any lawful purpose; to collect money due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation; to employ solicitors, attorneys, or counsel for any lawful purpose; to enter and prosecute, compromise and settle, and represent persons interested in actions, causes of action, and suits of every kind, and to take proceedings in Court of law pertaining to or which may appear necessary or advantageous in connection with its business or objects; to act as attorneys in fact for any lawful purpose:

(p.) To receive money, securities, and valuables of all kinds on deposit at interest or for custody; to build and maintain and otherwise acquire safety-deposit vaults, and to receive for safe-keeping therein documents, jewellery, and other valuables of every kind and description, and to generally carry on the business of a safe-deposit company; to receive for safe-keeping any valuables, books, or documents by the direction or authority of any Court or Judge or otherwise:

(q.) To acquire from any Government (either Provincial or Dominion or otherwise) or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) any lands, concessions, licences, leases, rights, charters, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(r.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, chattels, and effects:

(s.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records, and to carry on the business of a power company, and to supply and sell light, heat, water, and power:

(t.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying-out and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings, or improvements whatsoever; and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power and for producing and generating electricity for the purpose, of light, heat, and power, and to sell and supply compressed air, electricity, electric power, and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required:

(u.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(v.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissioners, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms, and in particular to make reports upon timber lands, timber leases, and timber licences of all descriptions and upon industries connected therewith, and upon facilities of every description for the conduct of such industries or to be used in connection therewith, and to charge such fees for such reports as may seem expedient, and for such purposes to employ timber cruisers, valuers, engineers, and other experts:

(w.) To offer for public subscription any shares or stock in the capital or debenture or debenture stock or other securities of any company, association, undertaking, or public or private body:

(x.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies, and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any company:

(y.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar with those of this Company, and to sell and dispose of the whole or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; and to promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring such undertaking or any part thereof, and for any other purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(z.) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(aa.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to the Company either for the sale of the stock of the Company or otherwise, whether by cash payment or allotment to him or

them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(bb.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(cc.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(dd.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(ee.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by financiers, promoters of companies, underwriters, merchants, capitalists, financial and general agents, and brokers and contractors in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(ff.) On a two-thirds majority vote of the shareholders of the Company present at a meeting duly called, to increase, subdivide, or reduce the capital of the Company, and to raise the whole or part at par or otherwise as may from time to time be determined, and to issue shares guaranteed or bearing any special privileges or advantages:

(gg.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise; and to use for all or any of the above purposes and things all or any portion of any money held in trust by the Company for investment, and all or any portion of the capital or other money of the Company, and all or any portion of the money received on deposit by the Company. mh7

(b.) To establish competitions in respect of contributions or information suitable for insertion in any publication of the Company or otherwise for any of the purposes of the Company, and to offer and grant prizes, rewards, and premiums of such character and on such terms as may seem expedient:

(c.) To purchase and acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business property goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or which is possessed of property deemed to be suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into any partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(d.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable considerations:

(e.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate either in cash fully paid shares or otherwise the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the share or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith; and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(g.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, in British Columbia or elsewhere, any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company:

(h.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(m.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(n.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(o.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(p.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(q.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body or persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on business in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as wood, timber, and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors, dealers in sawn lumber, wood, shingles, poles, piles, and timber of all kinds, and lumbermen in all or any branches of such businesses:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any timber lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and any rights or privileges which may be necessary for the purposes of the Company's business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, and implements; and to construct and erect, maintain and improve, own, purchase, or otherwise acquire, manage, and work engines, steamers, tramways, branches and sidings, waterworks, aqueducts, flumes, dams, watercourses, buildings, piers, wharves, factories, logging-railways (operated by steam, electricity, mechanical, or other power), bridges, booms, timber-slides, booming-grounds, manufactories, shingle-mills, sawmills, factories, buildings, machinery, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, either directly or indirectly, and to contribute to or otherwise aid or take part in such operations:

(c.) To carry on the business of foresters, timber merchants, sawmill and planing-mill proprietors, and timbermen in all or any of its branches, producers, manufacturers, and dealers in wood-pulp, and makers of and dealers in paper of all kinds and articles made from paper or pulp, and materials used in the manufacture or treatment of paper, including cardboard, mill-board; and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, export, import, and deal in saw-logs, timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber is used or forms a component part:

(d.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey, repair, alter, and build steamers and steam-tugs, barges, or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein, and to let out to hire or charter the same; to carry passengers and goods in any of the said ships or boats between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect moneys for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods:

(e.) To conduct, maintain, and operate wharves and piers for the purpose of shipping and transportation; to receive goods as wharfingers, warehousing, and carriers:

(f.) To carry on the business of hotel-keepers and boarding-house keepers, and to establish and conduct hotels and boarding-houses:

(g.) To issue preference shares for all or any of the unissued capital of the Company, and give such shares such preference as respects dividends or otherwise over ordinary shares as may be deemed expedient:

(h.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(i.) To promote other companies and hold their shares:

(j.) To acquire water, water-power, and water rights and privileges by record, licence, purchase, agreement, and otherwise, and to improve and use the said water-power, and render the same available for use, application, and distribution by any means whatsoever:

(k.) To collect and conserve water, and to divert, convey, distribute, deliver, furnish, and supply the same for irrigation, agricultural, manufacturing, industrial, mechanical, power, domestic, fire-protection, and other purposes to any person or corporation whatsoever:

(l.) To avail itself and to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities in and by the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendments thereto, created or conferred:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on:

(n.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, and for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking of all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(p.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company for such consideration as may be deemed expedient, and to take and hold as the consideration therefor, or for goods supplied or work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company whatsoever, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(q.) To import, export, trade, purchase, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, wares, produce, merchandise, and personal property of every description:

(r.) To purchase, hold, sell, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise deal in stocks, bonds, debentures, and shares of other corporations, or shares and interests in any other business, whether incorporated or not:

(s.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(t.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, or debentures in any such company as aforesaid:

(u.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(v.) To enter into any agreement with any Government or authority (supreme, foreign, local, municipal, or otherwise) or with any corporation, company, or individual that may be conducive to the interests of the Company, and to obtain from such Government, authority, company, or individual all rights, concessions, and privileges that the Company may deem desirable, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(w.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in the placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(y.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(z.) To do all such other things as may seem to the Company to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(aa.) To increase the capital stock of the Company:

(bb.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph. mh7

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property or rights suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to conduct the winding-up of the affairs of any such person, firm, association, or company:

(l.) To act as agents for and deal with the purchase, sale, improvement, development, and management of machinery, or mechanical or automatic contrivances or inventions of all descriptions, and any properties, business concerns and undertakings in connection therewith, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency and advertising agency business:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, for such consideration as to the Company may seem fit, any interest in any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with or of being used, for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, sell, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property and rights so acquired:

(n.) To pay for any property acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligation of the Company, by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company:

(o.) To adopt such means of making known the wares, merchandise, and products of the Company and promoting the sale thereof as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(p.) To acquire by subscription, underwriting, or otherwise, and to hold and sell or otherwise dispose of, shares, stock, debentures, or debenture stock, or any interest in the revenues or profits of any company, corporation, partnership, or person carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and upon any return of capital, distribution of assets, or division of profits, to distribute such shares, stocks, debentures, or debenture stock or any other property or assets of the Company in specie among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member or members of the Company:

(q.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees, by way of underwriting or otherwise, in relation to the stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or of any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority: Provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares or in loans upon the security thereof:

(r.) To borrow or raise money or secure the payment of money as well from or to directors of the Company as from or to any other person or persons, company, or body (including moneys and debts and obligations then or becoming or which might in certain events become due and owing), or to secure any person or persons, firm or company against any liability which might be incurred by such person or persons, firm or company in connection with the business of this Company; and for those purposes, or any of them, to execute and issue bonds or debentures (to bearer or otherwise) or debenture stock, mortgages, and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without charge upon the undertaking and all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, present or after acquired, including uncalled capital, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit:

(s.) To promote, organize, register, and establish or assist or concur in the promotion, organization, registration, and establishing of any company or companies, businesses or undertakings for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property, assets, and liabilities of this Company, or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose which shall be in any manner calculated to enhance, either directly or indirectly, the interests of the Company, with power generally to assist such company or companies, businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking shares therein, or by lending money thereto, with or without security:

(l.) To sell, exchange, or otherwise deal with the undertaking and property, rights, and privileges of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts of the purchase price as may be determined by the Company, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(u.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any country, State, or Territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated, or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards, agents, attorneys, or representatives (with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine) to represent the Company in any such country, State, or Territory:

(r.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(w.) To remunerate the directors, officers, servants, and employees of the Company, or any of them, out of or in proportion to the return or profits of the Company or otherwise as the Company shall think fit; to remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid in full or in part or otherwise, and to make gifts or grant bonuses to persons in the employment of the Company:

(x.) To execute and do generally all such agreements and contracts, deeds, instruments, and other things of any description whatsoever as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; to do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(y.) To insure or reinsure with any other company or persons any risks, guarantees, or obligations undertaken by the Company or to which it may be subject:

(z.) To support and subscribe to any charitable or public objects, and any institution, society, or club which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees, or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on business; to give pensions, gratuities, or charitable aid to any person or persons who have served the Company, or to the wives, children, or other relatives of such persons; and to form and to contribute to provident and benefit funds for the benefit of any persons employed by the Company:

(aa.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(bb.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment, and registration of the Company and the issue of its capital, with full power to enter into any agreement with any person, firm, or company for payment by such person, firm, or company of such costs, charges, and expenses or any part thereof in consideration of the Company paying a fixed sum of money, and to underwrite the shares of the Company on such terms as may be deemed advisable:

(cc.) To amalgamate with any other company upon such terms and conditions as to the Company may seem fit:

(dd.) It is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled; and also that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum shall be deemed independent objects of the Company, and, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, shall be in nowise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, it being the intention that the Company may exercise all or any of the powers herein contained. mh7

(h.) To advance or lend any of the capital or other moneys of the Company for the time being (including moneys received on deposit and moneys held in trust by the Company) on the security of freeholds, leaseholds, mortgages, agreements for sale of land, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, stock-in-trade, steam or other vessels or shares or interests therein, chattels, and any other property, real or personal, upon such terms as may be agreed:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, accept, sign, endorse, discount, negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, or to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock or other securities:

(j.) To negotiate loans and to lend or advance money (including moneys received on deposit and moneys held in trust by the Company) on securities or assets of all kinds to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments; and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(k.) To issue redeemable or irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, trust deed, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument, or in such other manner as may be determined; and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(l.) To be appointed executor and to accept the executorship of estates, and to act as executor of the estates of deceased persons; to obtain probate of wills and resealing of probate issued outside of British Columbia; to carry out the provisions of wills; to apply for and obtain letters of administration for and to administer intestates' estates, and estates where the executors or executor named in the wills renounce or do not or for any cause are unable to act; to apply for administration of estates where the executor or executors named in wills renounce or do not or for any cause are unable to act; to apply for appointment, to be appointed by a Court, Judge, or otherwise, and to act as trustee or committee of lunatics, imbeciles, persons incapacitated by old age, and other persons who are under any disability or incapacity to act for themselves; to apply for appointment, to be appointed, and to act as guardians for infants; to be appointed to and to accept and to execute the office of official administrator under any Act for any one or more of the counties of or the whole of any or all the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada or other State or country; to act as agents for executors, administrators, trustees, guardians of infants, committee of lunatics, imbeciles, persons incapacitated by old age or other incapacitated person, receivers, liquidators, or assignees; and to manage, administer, realize upon, and distribute any and all estates or assets of the same, and do everything pertaining thereto as fully and effectually as the owner or owners thereof might or could do; to act generally as trustee, and to undertake the duties of trustees by appointment of any Court having jurisdiction in the premises; to manage and carry on any business as trustees for any person or persons or corporation by any lawful appointment; to execute all trust deeds and other documents in connection with the carrying-out of any trust; to act as trustee for persons holding or entitled to hold debentures, bonds, or other securities; to act as liquidator or receiver or in other similar capacity in winding up the business of persons, firms, or corporations, or for purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation, and to act in promoting the amalgamation or working in co-operation of any such business or corporations; to receive assignments of estates upon any trust, and execute such trusts, and to execute as trustee deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors; to realize upon and to distribute according to law the assets of any business received in trust or by assignment, or as liquidator or receiver to receive money and securities on any trust, or by direction of a Court or Judge, or for investment or on deposit, or on security of bonds, bills of sale, promissory notes, acknowledgments, or other documents or evidence of debt of the Company or otherwise, and with or without any security, and to allow such rate or rates of interest thereon as may be agreed upon from time to time; to invest and deal with any money and securities received as herein provided, and also the money and securities of the Company, in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To buy, take by grant, assignment, devise, bequest, or otherwise acquire title to and to sell and transfer, mortgage, and hypothecate any Provincial, railway, municipal, and other bonds or debentures of any kind whatsoever, and stock and shares in companies, banks, or building societies and other securities; to countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other obligations of any kind whatsoever; to invest and manage any sinking fund of any kind for any municipality or corporation on such terms as may be agreed upon; to guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(n.) To give any guarantee in relation to mortgages, loans, investments, and securities, whether made or affected or acquired through the Company's agency or otherwise, and generally to guarantee or become sureties for the performance of any contracts and obligations:

(o.) To act as representative, attorney in fact, or proxy for any person, firm, or corporation for any lawful purpose; to collect money due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation; to employ solicitors, attorneys, or counsel for any lawful purpose; to enter and prosecute, compromise and settle, and represent persons interested in actions, causes of action, and suits of every kind, and to take proceedings in Court of law pertaining to or which may appear necessary or advantageous in connection with its business or objects; to act as attorneys in fact for any lawful purpose:

(p.) To receive money, securities, and valuables of all kinds on deposit at interest or for custody; to build and maintain and otherwise acquire safety-deposit vaults, and to receive for safe-keeping therein documents, jewellery, and other valuables of every kind and description, and to generally carry on the business of a safe-deposit company; to receive for safe-keeping any valuables, books, or documents by the direction or authority of any Court or Judge or otherwise:

(q.) To acquire from any Government (either Provincial or Dominion or otherwise) or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) any lands, concessions, licences, leases, rights, charters, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(r.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, chattels, and effects:

(s.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records, and to carry on the business of a power company, and to supply and sell light, heat, water, and power:

(t.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying-out and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings, or improvements whatsoever; and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power and for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and to sell and supply compressed air, electricity, electric power, and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required:

(u.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(v.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissioners, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms, and in particular to make reports upon timber lands, timber leases, and timber licences of all descriptions and upon industries connected therewith, and upon facilities of every description for the conduct of such industries or to be used in connection therewith, and to charge such fees for such reports as may seem expedient, and for such purposes to employ timber cruisers, valuers, engineers, and other experts:

(w.) To offer for public subscription any shares or stock in the capital or debenture or debenture stock or other securities of any company, association, undertaking, or public or private body:

(x.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies, and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any company:

(y.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar with those of this Company, and to sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the

Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; and to promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring such undertaking or any part thereof, and for any other purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(z.) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(aa.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to the Company either for the sale of the stock of the Company or otherwise, whether by cash payment or allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(bb.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(cc.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(dd.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(ee.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by financiers, promoters of companies, underwriters, merchants, capitalists, financial and general agents, and brokers and contractors in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(ff.) On a two-thirds majority vote of the shareholders of the Company present at a meeting duly called, to increase, subdivide, or reduce the capital of the Company, and to raise the whole or part at par or otherwise as may from time to time be determined, and to issue shares guaranteed or bearing any special privileges or advantages:

(gg.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise; and to use for all or any of the above purposes and things all or any portion of any money held in trust by the Company for investment, and all or any portion of the capital or other money of the Company, and all or any portion of the money received on deposit by the Company. mh7

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims, and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of mineral therefrom; and are:

(a.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province of British Columbia, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(b.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other mineral and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(f.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage and charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in no wise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the Company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects. mh7

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To adopt and take over an agreement entered into on the 16th day of September, 1905, between T. Barton & Co., of Weyburn, Saskatchewan, and Ladysmith Lumber Co., Ltd., for the acquisition of the lumber-yards of T. Barton & Co. at Pense and Weyburn, in Saskatchewan, and the goodwill, assets, and liabilities thereof, including the real estate of said Company, and to pay for the same in fully paid-up shares in this Company:

(b.) To buy, sell, and deal in the output of lumber, timber, laths, sashes and doors, and other manufactured articles of the New Ladysmith Lumber Company, Limited, in the Provinces of Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Manitoba, at such prices as shall from time to time be recommended by the B.C. Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers, Limited, or other representative body:

(c.) To carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle proprietors, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in sashes and doors and all kinds of finishings, and articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber and wood is used; and to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, dispose of and deal in, work and clear timber estates, limits, claims, berths, and concessions:

(d.) To construct, acquire, hold, maintain, use, and operate works for the purpose of holding, sorting, delivering, and all purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, saw-logs, and lumber, and for collecting, driving, rafting, towing, and separating the same, and for such purposes to construct docks, piers, booms, dolphins, dams, aprons, gates, locks, or other works necessary or incidental to said purposes:

(e.) To carry on business of general merchants, wholesale and retail; to establish shops or stores and to purchase and vend general merchandise; to build, acquire, possess, and operate factories, grist-mills, flour-mills, and machinery of all kinds, and to purchase, sell, and deal in wood, coal, lime, grain, hay, fodder, bread-stuffs, and personal property generally:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, record, or otherwise water-power, water records, water licences, or water privileges; to construct, equip, operate, maintain, improve, deepen, enlarge, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, water-power, reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, tramways, logging or other railways (whether operated by steam, electricity, or other mechanical power), telegraph and telephone lines, electric-supply lines, bridges, wharves, booms, timber-slides, booming-grounds, warehouses, electric works, houses, shops, store buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests:

(g.) To generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity for heat, light, and power in connection with the Company's works and undertakings now or hereafter to be engaged in, and to dispose of compressed air, electricity, electric and other power for profit for public or private purposes, and to deal generally in any form of developed power that may be applied or required:

(h.) To erect, fix, lay down, construct, connect, provide, supply, let on hire, remove, repair, and keep in repair cables, wires, lines, dynamos, accumulators, meters, generators, and distributors of electricity, fittings, brackets, lamps, globes, posts, insulators, and all necessary, useful, and ornamental appliances and adjuncts used or which may be used for or in connection with lighting, heating, or motive power, whether for the Company itself or not, and to undertake installations of electricity for any purposes for which it may be used:

(i.) To engage in the production and manufacture of, and acquire and use for the Company's purpose, and to act as wholesale and retail dealers in builders and contractors' supplies, materials, and accessories of every nature and kind whatsoever, and all classes of machinery, power plant, tools, and appliances used by or useful for builders or contractors or construction companies for any of such purposes; to prepare estimates, plans, and specifications and to submit tenders and to enter into contracts for any works, and to give security for the completion of any of the Company's works, contracts, or undertakings:

(j.) To build, purchase, hire, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire and hold, and to maintain, operate, repair, improve, alter, sell, exchange, or let out to hire or charter, or otherwise deal with and dispose of, any steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels:

(k.) To acquire by purchase, pre-emption, or otherwise, and to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account, any lands and hereditaments situate in the Province of British Columbia or any other Province of the Dominion of Canada, and to sell and manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(l.) To engage in, own, and carry on the business of stockmen, farmers, agriculturists, pasturers, game and poultry rearers and dealers, dairymen, and horse, cattle, and sheep breeders and dealers in all their respective branches:

(m.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, and pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(n.) To subscribe for, conditionally or non-conditionally, to underwrite, issue on commission, or otherwise take, hold, deal in, and convert, stocks, shares, and securities of all kinds; to enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession, or any operation with any person, partnership, or company, and to promote and to aid in promoting, constitute, form, or organize companies, syndicates, or partnerships of all kinds for the purpose of acquiring and undertaking any property and liabilities of the Company, or of advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, and for any other purpose which this Company may think expedient; to lend money to, guarantee contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company; to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and sell, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(o.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carry on any business which can be conveniently carried on which this Company is authorized to carry on in connection with the same, or may seem to the company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions, which the Company may think advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities, in the Province of British Columbia or any other Province of the Dominion of Canada or from the Dominion Government, which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to procure the incorporation of this Company in any of such Provinces, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(r.) To borrow money on the securities of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to execute and give mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(t.) To sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(v.) To purchase or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carry on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(w.) To accomplish, do all or any of the above objects, whether as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the formation and incorporation of this Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, either in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner the Company may determine:

(y.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire from Alfred William Bowser, of Halifax, in the Province of Nova Scotia, tobacco manufacturer, all the interest he has in certain tobacco lands, tobaccos, manufacturing plant, farming implements and machinery situate at Kelowna aforesaid, and all the rights and privileges now held by him under an agreement made with The Okanagan Loan and Investment Company, Limited, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, 1912, and to pay for the same by the allotment to him of shares in the Company, or partly in cash and partly by the allotment of such shares:

(b.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or in any other manner from time to time any lands and hereditaments wherever situate, and especially in the Okanagan Valley in British Columbia, and to pay for the same in cash or by the allotment of shares in the Company, or partly in cash and partly by the allotment of such shares; and after the acquisition of such lands to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account the same or any of them, and, when deemed advisable, to improve, subdivide, sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of:

(c.) To plant, grow, produce, buy, sell, import, and export tobacco, and to carry on the business of growers and manufacturers of and dealers in tobacco:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, maintain, manufacture, prepare for market, and market any such products, and to sell, dispose of, and deal in the same, either in their prepared, manufactured, or raw state, and either by wholesale or retail:

(e.) To enter into agreements for the cultivating, planting, growing, curing, preparing for market, and marketing of tobacco with the holders and owners of lands upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit:

(f.) To carry on the business of fruit and vegetable dealers and canners in all its branches:

(g.) To carry on, either solely or in conjunction with any other person, company, or corporation, the business of real-estate agents and brokers, insurance agents, and similar businesses in all their branches:

(h.) To purchase, produce, raise, preserve, can, cure, dry, evaporate, pack, pickle, and sell, or consign to agents for sale, all kinds of fruit and vegetables:

(i.) To enter into agreements with lot-holders and holders of land to lay out and prepare their properties or any portions thereof into orchards, and to plant the same with trees, and to care for, maintain, and cultivate such lands and trees in such manner and on such terms as may be agreed upon:

(j.) To conduct and carry on the business of fruit, vegetable, grain, hay, tobacco, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail, and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of importers, buyers, sellers, handlers, traders of and dealers in tobacco, fruit, fruit-trees, nursery stock of all kinds, and all farm, garden, orchard, and dairy produce, and all other agricultural products, and in connection with the business of the Company to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale thereof:

(k.) To build, erect, construct, purchase, and acquire canneries, canning-factories, buildings, wharves, and warehouses, and to purchase and acquire canning-sites and lands, and all other rights which may be found necessary or desirable for carrying on the business and furthering the objects of the Company:

(l.) To insure against loss by any means whatever any fruit, tobacco, or other farm produce held or owned by or consigned to the Company while in transit or in storage by means of a definite fund or percentage on such fruit or farm produce to be formed and set aside for that purpose:

(m.) To sell by public auction the fruit, tobacco, or other farm produce owned or held for sale by the Company, and for such purposes to carry on the business of auctioneers; and to acquire or hold an interest in any firm or company whose business consists wholly or in part of selling tobacco, fruit, or other farm produce by public auction:

(n.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(o.) To carry on the business of manufacturing or dealing in lumber or timber; to manufacture boxes, crates, barrels, baskets, and receptacles of every description and kind, and to buy and sell the same; to erect mills for that purpose and to purchase logs and lumber:

(p.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances on the security of any land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, and otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(q.) To harvest, take, store, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in ice:

(r.) To acquire, build, or operate cooling and cold-storage plants for the use of the Company or of any person, firm, or corporation:

(s.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities contained in the "Water Act, 1909," or any other Act that may be enacted in lieu or in substitution of such Act, and all such further rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities as may be contained in any Act amending or repealing the same in whole or in part:

(t.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(u.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(v.) To acquire, maintain, and operate lines of transportation by land by means of tramways, stages wagons, and pack-trains, and by water by means of steamers and boats:

(w.) To carry on the business of common carriers in all its branches:

(x.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(y.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise, or in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(z.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, engaging in, or about to carry on and engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(aa.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(bb.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(cc.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(dd.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(ee.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(ff.) To purchase or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(gg.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(hh.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(ii.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director, or any other person or persons, for services rendered in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(jj.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now being carried on by Frederick A. Rowe and Henry E. Wylie at the City Market Building on Main Street, in the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, under the name of the "Rowe Canvas Glove Manufacturing Company"; and with a view thereto to enter into an agreement with the said Frederick A. Rowe and Henry E. Wylie in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by H. de W. King, a solicitor of the Supreme Court, and the directors shall carry the said agreement into effect, with full power, nevertheless, from time to time to agree to any modifications before or after the execution thereof:

(b.) To carry on the said business and to extend the same throughout the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, and to carry on any other business or businesses which the Company may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(c.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of clothiers, dry-goods merchants, tailors, dealers in staple and fancy dry-goods, haberdashers, cotton-spinners, glove, overall, and apron manufacturers, manufacturers and importers and wholesale and retail dealers of and in textile fabrics of all kinds, dressmakers, hatters, outfitters, gloves, boot and shoe makers, manufacturers and importers and wholesale and retail dealers of and in leather goods, canvas goods, household goods, and other household fittings and utensils, ornaments, stationery, cartons, and fancy goods, and articles and commodities of household use and consumption, and generally of and in all manufactured goods and materials:

(d.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, and exchange, let on hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purposes of any of the said businesses, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such business, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(e.) To receive money, valuables, and goods and materials of all kinds on deposit or for safe custody:

(f.) To provide and conduct refreshment-rooms, newspaper-rooms, reading and writing rooms, dressing-rooms, telephones, and other conveniences for the use of customers and others:

(g.) To carry on the business of a co-operative store and general supply society in all its branches, and to transact all kinds of agency business:

(h.) To carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise), except the issuing of policies of assurance on human life, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified businesses, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(i.) To carry on the business of a steam and general laundry, and to wash, clean, purify, scour, bleach, wring, dry, iron, colour, dye, disinfect, renovate, and prepare for use all articles of wearing-apparel, household, domestic, and other linen, and cotton and woollen goods and clothing and fabrics of all kinds, and to buy, sell, hire, manufacture, repair, let on hire, alter, improve, treat, and deal in all apparatus, machines, materials, and articles of all kinds which are capable of being used for any such purposes:

(j.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(k.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in any real or personal property, securities, and rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools, and implements, and stock-in-trade:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions:

(m.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with same:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof from time to time for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular, without restricting the generality of the preceding clause, for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures, or securities among the members of the Company in specie:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to secure the repayment of the same in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular, without restricting the generality of the preceding clause, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's undertaking and property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, warehouse receipts, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To apply for any Acts of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(r.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, engage, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property, rights, and privileges of the Company:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(u.) To do all or any of the things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects. mh29

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of tug, barge, steamship, scow, and boat owners, builders, repairers, outfitters, carriers, lighterers, warehousemen, forwarding agents, wharfingers, stevedores, and merchants:

(b.) To build, construct, purchase, charter, hire, or otherwise acquire, operate, mortgage, maintain, improve, alter, manage, work, repair, control, equip, and superintend tugs, barges, scows, sailing and steam ships, electric, steam, or gasoline launches, engines, boilers, plant, machinery, or any vessels or any interest or shares in vessels, and to let out on hire and charter the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry passengers and freight in any of the said ships, boats, or vessels between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and for the carriage of such passengers and freight:

(d.) To purchase, lease, construct, acquire, and hold all such lands, right-of-way, water rights, foreshore rights, wharves, piers, tugs, warehouses, slips, ways, and other works, constructions, and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and likely to contribute to or otherwise aid in any of the operations and works of the Company:

(e.) To purchase and acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or which is possessed of property deemed to be suitable for the purpose of this Company; and to enter into any partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests or amalgamation, reciprocal concession or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(f.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable considerations:

(g.) To promote, form, organize, and register and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash fully paid shares or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith; and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights and privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(i.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, in British Columbia or elsewhere, any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company:

(j.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(p.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(q.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(r.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(s.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(t.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To produce any form of power, and generate gas and electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and to construct, operate, and maintain dams, wires, and electric works, power-houses, generating-stations, or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or by persons, companies, or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, for heating, lighting, motive power, or for any other purposes for which gas, electricity, or electric, water, steam, compressed air, or wind power may be applied or required:

(b.) To place, sink, lay, fit, maintain, and repair gas mains and pipes, and electric lines, wires, switches, connections, branches, gas, electric, and water motors, dynamos, engines, water-wheels, turbines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, canals, and other erections and works; and to erect and place any gas or electric lines, steam-pipes, water-mains, electric wires, or other apparatus above or below ground, and either on public or private property, or partly on public and partly on private property:

(c.) To acquire water for municipal purposes, water-power and other purposes, by records and licences of unrecorded water, or by the purchase, lease, barter, or exchange of water records, water licences, or water privileges within British Columbia:

(d.) To take, use, sell, lease, barter, or exchange water for municipal purposes and water-power and other purposes within British Columbia:

(e.) To supply any one or more cities, municipalities, or incorporated or unincorporated localities within the Province of British Columbia with water for domestic and other lawful purposes, and to carry on business of a waterworks company in all its branches:

(f.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company and to construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(g.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(h.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(i.) To exercise all or any of the rights, powers, privileges, and priorities in and by the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendments thereof, created, granted, or conferred upon companies incorporated for power purposes, or for the construction or operation of waterworks or the supply and utilization of water:

(j.) To sink wells and shafts, and to make, build, construct, lay down, and maintain reservoirs, pump-houses, and pumping-works, cisterns, culverts, filter-beds, main and other pipes and appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water or otherwise for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the water of any pond, stream, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(l.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct, lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(m.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or for any persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(n.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any real or personal property of any nature or description, lands, timber berths, leases, limits, and timber lands, mill property, water rights, water records, roads, foreshore rights, wharves, docks, piers, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purposes of its business:

(o.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, hotels, boarding-houses, trading-posts, and to carry on any general mercantile business:

(p.) To invest, lend, and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and upon such security as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(r.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(s.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(t.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(v.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(w.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bouns, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(x.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital:

(y.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(z.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and in such manner as the regulations of the Company from time to time provide, any shares in the Company's capital:

(aa.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(cc.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(dd.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(cc.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh29

No. 1096 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Fraser Commercial Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twentieth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) Generally to enter into, carry on, and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, mining, lumbering, trading, or otherwise (except insurance and banking), as an individual capitalist or natural person may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(b.) To purchase outright any patent or invention, and to acquire the right, title, and interest of any person or company therein either in whole or in part, and to pay for the same in cash or in paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the capital stock of the Company:

(c.) To act as agent or broker and in any fiduciary capacity whatever in relation to any undertaking or business relating to real or personal property in the same manner as a natural person might legally act in relation thereto:

(d.) Generally to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of property, both real and personal, movable and immovable, in esse and in futuro, and to own, hold, sell, mortgage, alienate, transfer, and otherwise dispose of the same, and to acquire the same in exchange for shares of the capital stock of the Company:

(e.) Generally to deal in all kinds of securities, whether real or personal, and to acquire the same by purchase, exchange, or otherwise:

(f.) To sign, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and borrow money upon any shares, bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes of the Company, or upon any other property or assets of the Company, at such rate of interest or upon such terms as may be agreed, and to give security, pledge and hypothecate the property or assets of the Company or any part thereof for the repayment of the money so borrowed and the interest thereon:

(g.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any place or country:

(h.) To distribute the whole or any part of the capital stock of the Company to the members thereof as fully paid-up stock in lieu of distribution of profits made by the Company:

(i.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertakings of the Company for such consideration and in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, and securities of any other company, and to promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring such undertaking or any part thereof, or for any other purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(j.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. And for any or all of the above-mentioned objects to do any or all things to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might or could do as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise. mh29

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on in British Columbia or elsewhere in any part of the world the trades and businesses of land-owners, landed proprietors and agents, keepers and proprietors of hotels, restaurants, cafes, refreshment-rooms, tea-rooms, lunch-counters, cafeterias, apartment-houses, lodging-houses, livery-stables, cab-stands, and automobiles, garages, tobacco stores and stands, news-stands, farms, dairies, laundries, butcher-shops, ice-manufacturing plants, and provision depots, and to carry on all businesses necessary to be carried on in connection with the operation, conduct, or management of the above, or any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same:

(b.) To build, erect, purchase, lease, rent, or otherwise acquire lands, premises, or buildings for the above businesses or any of them, and the same suitably furnish, outfit, and equip:

(c.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence any real or personal property, lands, premises, or hereditaments or any other rights which the Company may think necessary or convenient or that may be deemed necessary for the Company's business, and to sell, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(d.) To carry on the business of licensed victuallers, dealers, wholesale and retail, in wines, spirits, malt, and fermented liquors:

(e.) To carry on the business of a light, heat, and power company in all its branches, and generally to provide, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to lay out, operate, and maintain works, stations, engines, power-houses, retorts, structures, accumulators, cables, wires, lamps, meters, transformers, and equipment of every description for the development, generation, transmission, or utilization of gas, water, steam, electric, pneumatic, or other power, or structures and plant for any form of heating and lighting, and to undertake or enter into contracts for the lighting of towns, cities, streets, public and private buildings, and other places, and the supply of gas and electric light, heat, and power for any or all private or public purposes, and to perform and enforce such contracts:

(f.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-power, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water or water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the water of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(g.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909," and of the "Power Companies Relief Act, 1902":

(h.) To sell, assign, or transfer to another company lawfully empowered in that behalf, the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and works as a power company:

(i.) To promote, acquire, construct, hire, equip, maintain, improve, work, manage, or control, or aid in or subscribe towards promotion, acquisition, construction, hiring, equipment, maintenance, improvement, working, management, or control of, works, undertakings, and operations of any kind which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company or any of them, and in particular roads, ships, scows, launches, lighters, tramways, branches and sidings, harbours, piers, docks, quays, wharves, warehouses, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, reservoirs, embankments, water-works, watercourses, canals, pipe-lines, flumes, irrigations, drainage, telegraph, or telephone systems, carrying undertakings by land and water, roads, trails, markets, exchanges, public and private buildings, newspapers and publications, establishments, hotels, residences, stores, shops, and places of amusements, recreation, or instruction:

(j.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track or aerial or other tramways, with all necessary side-tracks and turnouts thereon for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highway, roads, streets, or bridges which are in the line of any tramway built or intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(k.) To carry on the business of shipping agents and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(l.) To undertake and carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects of the Company, or which may be thought calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(m.) To perform, for the benefit of any other corporation, company, firm, or person, any act, operation, or thing which the Company might do or undertake for themselves, whether for reward or gratuitously, or as part of any arrangement or under any contract:

(n.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms, with or without security, as may seem expedient, and in particular as part of any contract for the acquisition of property or rights or for the benefit of persons having dealings with the Company:

(o.) To lend or advance money to such person or persons, company or companies, on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers to and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any person or persons whomsoever, with power to take security for such advances upon freehold and leasehold land, stock and stations, wool, cattle, produce, crops, shares, securities, merchandise, and other property, real or personal:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, issue, endorse, or discount bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and to secure the repayment of moneys borrowed or owing and the performance of obligations incurred by the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(s.) To issue redeemable or irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise, and issuable or payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, trust deed, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument, or in such other manner as may be determined, and for any such purposes to charge, all or any part of the property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(t.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(u.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, including the right to apply for, receive, and hold any liquor licence or licences in accordance with any Acts, by-laws, or regulations of the Province of British Columbia or any municipality therein or elsewhere wheresoever, and to carry on all business which may be carried on under and by virtue of the said licence or licences, and to carry on, exercise, and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(v.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any inventions which may seem capable of being used to the advantage or benefit of the Company, and to use, exercise, and develop or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property or information acquired:

(w.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(x.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(y.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to sell, exchange, lease, underlease, surrender, or otherwise deal with, either absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, corporation, company, society, or association, or to any person or persons, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any stock, shares (whether wholly or partly paid), debentures, debenture stock, securities, or property of any other company:

(z.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(aa.) To obtain or in any way assist in obtaining any provisional order or Act of Parliament, decree, rescript, or other necessary authority for enabling this or any other company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this or any other company's constitution; to procure this or any other company to be legalized, registered, or incorporated, if necessary, in accordance with the laws of any country or State in which it may propose to carry on operations; to establish and maintain agencies of the Company and to open and keep a register or registers of this or any other company in any other British colony or dependency, and to allocate any number of the shares in this or any other company to such register or registers:

(bb.) To effect insurances and pay premiums or become a member of any society or association for mutual assurance, and pay calls or otherwise contribute to the funds of any such society or association:

(cc.) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(dd.) To do all or any of the above things either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents or otherwise, and with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, corporate or unincorporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company, and to allow any property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees:

(ee.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(b.) To carry on the and every of the trades or businesses of manufacturers of, dealers in, engineers for, and contractors engaged in the construction and installation of elevators of all kinds, and all manner of machinery, articles, fittings, or furnishings for the same, or capable of being used in the equipment thereof or in any way incidental thereto, foundrymen, smiths, machinists, mechanical engineers, electrical engineers, metal manufacturers and workers of every description, metallurgists, electricians, woodworkers, mill-wrights, general contractors and builders, wholesale and retail merchants, patentees of and dealers in all kinds of metal or concrete or metal and concrete work, machinery, or implements, and any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Company may desire or may deem capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the said businesses or any of them; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and alter, let on hire, and deal in elevators and elevator equipment of all kinds, engines, motors, machinery of all kinds, hardware, tools, implements, mechanical and electrical appliances and fittings of every nature and description, personal property of all kinds, and articles of all kinds composed of or in the manufacture or construction of which wood, metal, or cement are used, either alone or in connection with any other substance:

(c.) To carry on a general wholesale and retail business in sheet iron, tin, steel, copper, iron, metal, and concrete goods of all descriptions, either manufactured or otherwise:

(d.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches, and to obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description and any estate or interest therein, and to hold, manage, operate, exchange, sell, lease, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(f.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, manufacture, construct, improve, repair, alter, mortgage, use, lease, sublet, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of buildings, warehouses, shops, and erections of all kinds, machinery and plant of every description, hydraulic works, electric works, wharves, piers, docks, and other works and conveniences of any nature and description, which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interest:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, or obtain the right to use, and to use, exercise, or develop, any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(h.) To sell any patent rights or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it, or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to let or allow to be used or otherwise deal with any inventions, patents, or privileges in which the Company may be interested, and to do all such acts and things as may be deemed expedient for turning to account any inventions, patents, and privileges in which the Company may be interested:

(i.) To carry on any business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being carried on in connection with the acquirement by the Company of the patent rights referred to above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(j.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or which may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue any obligations of this Company:

(k.) To acquire or take by subscription, purchase, or otherwise howsoever, and to hold, mortgage, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of, shares or stock in the securities of any company, association, or undertaking having any objects of a like nature or description with any of those of this Company, or such as may be deemed by this Company likely to advance, either directly or indirectly, the interests of this Company:

(l.) To amalgamate or enter into partnership or any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company of persons, firms, or companies carrying on, or capable of carrying on, or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(m.) To adopt such measures of making known all or any of the manufactures or products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by the publication and distribution of books and periodicals, and by the issue of pamphlets, price-lists, and circulars:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(p.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, or concessions, or any portion thereof or any interest therein:

(q.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to extend or carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice or affect the Company's interest:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(s.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(t.) And generally to do all such acts and things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the Company's objects. mh29

DECLARATION FOR THE INCORPORATION OF "FORT GEORGE GENERAL HOSPITAL."

WE, the undersigned, John Archibald Shearer, real estate, and Carl Custer Cutler, manager, both of the Town of Fort George, in the Province of British Columbia, desire to have the "Fort George General Hospital" incorporated under the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies Act," Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1897, and amendments thereto.

1. The corporate name of the Society shall be "Fort George General Hospital."

2. The purposes of the Society are as follows: To erect, maintain, and operate a general public hospital for the District of Fort George, and to that end to acquire by gift, purchase, or otherwise, and to sell, convey, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of or encumber, real property; to provide medical assistance and attention for all and sundry the people of said district; and generally to do everything necessary and convenient to be done in and about the promotion of the health and physical welfare of the people of said district.

3. The affairs of said Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors to be composed of seven persons, and the first directors shall be: John Archibald Shearer, real estate; Charles Melville Wright, clergyman; Frederick Norman Dewar, bank manager; William Albert Stillingfleet, printer; Robert Henry Isaac Williams, clergyman; Welland Rattray Gordon, editor; and Carl Custer Cutler, manager.

4. The successors to said Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of said Society, to be held in the month of June, A.D. 1912, and thereafter annually in the manner to be provided by the by-laws of the Corporation.

5. Provision for its dissolution may be made in the by-laws of said Corporation.

In testimony whereof we have agreed upon and signed these presents, in duplicate, this 13th day of March, A.D. 1912.

JOHN ARCHIBALD SHEARER,
CARL CUSTER CUTLER.

Made, signed, and acknowledged by the said John Archibald Shearer and Carl Custer Cutler at Fort George, B.C., before me the day and year above written.

D. F. M. PERKINS,

A Justice of the Peace in and for the Province of British Columbia.

I hereby certify that the foregoing declaration appears to me to be in conformity with the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies Act."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1103 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Sorrento Water and Power Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at Sorrento, near Notch Hill, in the County of Yale, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-third day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities in Parts VII. and IX. of the "Water Act, 1909," and all such further rights, powers, privileges, priorities, and immunities as may be contained in any Act amending or repealing the same in whole or in part:

(b.) To develop, own, and hold records or licences of unrecorded water, and to purchase water records and water privileges, and to obtain licences to use water; and to construct, erect, maintain, and operate canals, ditches, pipes, aqueducts, raceways, flumes, weirs, wheels, feeders, laterals, reservoirs, dams, lakes, wells, buildings, or other erections or works which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water and water-power, and to alter, renew, extend, improve, repair, and maintain any such works or any part thereof; and to conduct, carry, and transfer water to any persons or corporations for irrigation, manufacturing, industrial, mechanical, mining, milling, domestic, and stock-raising purposes, and also to build and construct storage reservoirs for the collection and storage of water for the purposes aforementioned, with full power and authority to make contracts and agreements for the sale of permanent water rights, and to convey such water for irrigation, domestic, and general power purposes:

(c.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain tramway, telegraph, and telephone systems and lines:

(d.) To use such water and water-power for domestic or general irrigation purposes on lands in the Province of British Columbia, and for mining, milling, manufacturing, industrial, and general power purposes, and for generating electricity for light, heat, power, the operation of motors, engines, and machinery of all kinds, or for any other purpose for which it can be used, either alone or in connection with any other power:

(c.) Generally to construct all works and do all things necessary for obtaining, selling, delivering, distributing, and measuring water or water-power or electrical or other developed power or otherwise for the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To adopt such unit of measurement of water or water-power and to provide such means of measuring water or water-power for use and sale as may be most convenient:

(g.) To sell and permit the use of water or water-power for transmitting electricity or any other form of developed power, and for all or any of the purposes for which it may or can be used or beneficially applied, and to fix a tariff of rates and charges for such sale or use:

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for same either in cash or shares:

(i.) In particular, but without in any way limiting or restricting the generality of the objects set forth in the preceding clauses hereof, to acquire the reservoir-site and water system owned by J. R. Kinghorn, William Syson, B. G. Harrington, C. J. Beemer, and W. S. Jackson in accordance with the terms of the draft agreement for sale of same made between the said J. R. Kinghorn, William Syson, B. G. Harrington, C. J. Beemer, and W. S. Jackson of the one part, and the proposed Company of the other part, and to carry the said agreement into effect with or without modification:

(j.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1112 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Dinsdale and Malcolm, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into fifty thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

D. WHITESIDE,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, under the style or firm of "Dinsdale and Malcolm," and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith; and with a view thereto to enter into and carry out, with or without modification, an agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between Robert Dinsdale and John M. Malcolm of the one part, and the Company of the other part, and is to be signed immediately after the incorporation of this Company and filed with the Registrar of Joint-stock Companies:

(2.) To carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick and tile and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents:

(3.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(4.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of any property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(5.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(6.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(7.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(8.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(9.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(10.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(11.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(12.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(13.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(14.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(15.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(16.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(17.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(18.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(19.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(20.) To carry on business as proprietors of flats, and to let on lease or otherwise apartments therein, and to provide for the tenants and occupiers thereof all or any of the conveniences commonly provided in hotels or clubs:

(21.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh29

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In the Matter of the "Quieting Titles Act," and in the Matter of an application of Margaret B. Corbett to have her title quieted to Lot 13, Subdivision of Lot 6, Suburban Block 11, City of New Westminster, B.C., under the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given that Margaret B. Corbett, of the City of New Westminster, B.C., the petitioner herein, has made an application to the Hon. Mr. Justice Murphy, a Judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, for a certificate of title to the following lands:—All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying, and being in the City of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia, and more particularly known and described as: Lot Thirteen (13), Subdivision of Lot Six (6), Suburban Block Eleven (11), subject to a certain indenture of mortgage bearing date the 29th day of July, 1910, and made between Arthur Dickinson as mortgagor, and James R. Brennan as mortgagee, which said indenture of mortgage was deposited in the Land Registry Office at the City of New Westminster, B.C., and numbered 14441c, but free from all other encumbrances,

And upon which said application did produce evidence whereby the said petitioner appears to be the owner thereof in fee (as her interests may appear), subject to the above-mentioned mortgage, but free from all other encumbrances, and thereupon the said Judge did, by order dated the day of March, A.D. 1912, order that any person or persons having or pretending to have any title to or interest in the said lands or any part thereof on or before Thursday, the 11th day of April, 1912, at 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon, at or after which time the said Judge will sign a declaration of title herein, filing a statement of his claim, verified by affidavit, in the office of the District Registrar of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, at New Westminster, B.C., and to serve notice thereof on the said Margaret B. Corbett, or on Adam S. Johnston, her solicitor, at his office in the City of New Westminster, B.C., and in default of every such claim shall be debarred and the title of the said Margaret B. Corbett (as her interests may appear) become the true and correct title of the said lands, and a declaration of title will issue that she is the legal and beneficial owner in fee-simple in possession of the said lands and premises, subject to the reservations mentioned in section 23 of the said Act, subject to the aforementioned mortgage, but free from all other rights, interests, claims, and demands whatever.
